CXXXVI. RELIGION. (For the Review.)

a. The four prevailing religions of the world are, the Pagan, Mahometan, Christian, and Jewish.

b. Pagans are those who believe in many false gods, and in different nations worship the sun, stars, rivers, idols, and even beasts and insects.

Pagan Idol in India.

c. They often torture themselves, destroy themselves and practise other cruel and wicked rites to please their gods, and obtain the forgiveness of their sins.

d. Mahometans are those who believe in a prophet in Arabia, who lived, and attended to be inspired.

e. He commanded all his followers to go to the temple of Mecca and make idolatry.