

Worksheet for Tools -- Form and Function

STONE TOOL	DESCRIPTION OF FORM Size, Shape, Weight, How Made? (edges, surfaces?)	DESCRIPTION OF FUNCTION How Used? Advantages?
HAMMERSTONE	Hand-size cobble; round, blunt-end or ovoid; heavier than worked object; water-rounded, or pecked, ground and polished.	Hammer-percussion tool; all-purpose for pounding and crushing; easily found in glacial soils and stream beds.
KNIFE	Blade-like tool, hand held or tied to shaft; sharp point and edges chipped (at least one side); also thicker lunar-shaped ulu.	Tool for cutting flesh or wood; also used for skinworking; can be reworked from discarded projectile points.
DRILL/AWL
PESTLE
PLUMMET
PROJECTILE POINT
SCRAPER
AXE or ADZE

Which are most alike in FORM?

Which are most alike in FUNCTION?